Fulbright Seminar Fellow—Cleveland Council on World Affairs, Spring 2022

Description:
Since 1923, the Cleveland Council on World Affairs (CCWA) has served as the resource for increasing understanding of international affairs and engaging globally minded citizens in Greater Cleveland.

CCWA is seeking applicants for a short-term fellowship position. This fellowship will involve supporting the “Fulbright Visiting Scholar Enrichment Seminar: Preparing for and Mitigating the Effects of Climate Change” taking place in Cleveland, Ohio, from May 11 – 14, 2022. The seminar is sponsored by the U.S. Department of State and the Institute of International Education with CCWA administering the program locally.

The Fulbright Seminar Fellow will help plan for and carry out the Scholar Presentation portion of the Enrichment Seminar. A call for abstracts will be launched for Fulbright Visiting Scholars to present their research related to the topic of climate change during the seminar. CCWA will select the research to be presented and organize the Scholar Presentation session. The Fellow will help CCWA identify selection criteria, review abstracts, and recommend which submissions should be included in the session. The Fellow may also assist the selected Visiting Scholars in preparing for their presentations, including advice on edits to the written document and suggestions for their oral presentations. The Fellow will also assist in person on the day of the Scholar Presentations on Friday, May 13, and may be asked to help introduce the scholars, manage the session, and provide feedback post-seminar.

Candidates with a graduate degree and/or a background in conducting academic research are preferred.

Commitment Period:
Start date Monday, April 18, 2022. Availability of 8-10 hours per week. Fellowship period is approximately 4 weeks. A stipend of $2,000 will be provided.

Location:
The Fellowship may take place in a hybrid format (both in-person and remotely). CCWA’s office is located at 812 Huron Road East, Suite 620, Cleveland, OH 44115.

To Apply:
Send a resume and cover letter as one PDF or Word document titled: Last Name, First Name to akovach@ccwa.org.

Deadline: End of day Thursday, March 31, 2022
